Ranch Management Strategies for Drought
Red Bluff Bull and Gelding Sale (Tehama District Fairgrounds)
Jan. 27, 2017 | 8 – 10:30 a.m.

Welcome
Justin Oldfield, California Cattlemen’s Association

Water Use on Irrigated Pasture and Growth Cycle of Annual Rangelands
Larry Forero, Shasta County Director, UC Cooperative Extension

Consideration of Supplemental Feeding, Including Byproducts
Josh Davy, Tehama County Livestock, Range, and Natural Resources Advisor, UC Cooperative Extension

Benefits of Rotational Grazing During Drought
Ken Tate, Rangeland Watershed Specialist, UC Davis

Coping with Drought on California Rangelands: Results of Interviews and Surveys of California Ranchers
Leslie Roche, Rangeland Specialist, UC Davis